

Title: Geoscience Technical English Replicate Course I

Feedback:

In general, participants reported that the course was very useful for all participants. “We learned more things about English especially about geology, and we can utilize these experiences in field during field visits in different places in Afghanistan. In the future we want to the time of course to be longer. We want to participant in this kind of course each time it is offered.”